How to get there

The Aula des Jeunes-Rives is part of the lake side campus of University of Neuchâtel and can be reached from the train station by a short 10 min walk down the hill.

Exit the train station, and cross the road towards the lake. Descend the stairs and follow this lane until down the hill. At Faubourg de l'Hôpital turn left and continue walking towards the Red Church. Turn right to pass in front of the Red Church, and the Aula des Jeunes-Rives is a few meters ahead, on the left.

- 09.30 Opening, welcome
Prof. Bruno Therrien, University of Neuchatel
Prof. Kilian Stoffel, Rector University of Neuchatel
- 09.45 Prof. Leroy Cronin, University of Glasgow, UK
«Combining Robotics and Artificial Intelligence for Search & Discovery in Chemical Space»
- 10.45 Prof. Thomas Ward, University of Basel, Switzerland
«Artificial Metalloenzymes: Challenges and Opportunities»
- 11.45 Werner Lecture 2018
Prof. Sandra Luber, University of Zürich, Switzerland
«Advanced Computational Approaches for Bio-Inspired Water Splitting»
- 12.30 Lunch / commercial exhibition
- 13.00 SCS general assembly 2018
- 13.30 Prof. Jean-Pierre Sauvage, University of Strasbourg, France
«From Chemical Topology to Molecular Machines»
- 14.30 Prof. Takashi Kato, University of Tokyo, Japan
«Supramolecular Assemblies and Nanostructured Liquid Crystals for Future Materials»
- 15.30 Coffee break
- 16.00 Prof. Peng Yin, Wyss Institute, Harvard University, USA
«Molecular Programming with DNA/RNA»
- 17.00 Closing remarks
Aperitif and networking event

Registration

Please register on scg.ch/springmeeting/2018

Deadline for registration is March 28, 2018

Fees

- SCS Members: free of charge
If attending as an SCS member you must bring your SCS membership-card with you!
- Non-members: CHF 50.-
Pre-registered participants will get an invoice in advance to avoid waiting time at the registration desk.
